

About the Annual Meeting

Participant FAQ | Updated October 30, 2026

When and where is the meeting?

Friday, July 9, 2027, at the Grand Horizon Room, UCLA Covel Commons, 330 De Neve Drive (Sunset Village), Los Angeles, California 90095. The published program is for Friday; no second-day program is confirmed.

What is the theme?

From Innovation to Implementation: Advancing the Clinical, Scientific, and Economic Case for AI in Dentistry.

Who should attend?

Dentists, dental specialists, hygienists, dental assistants, students, residents, educators, researchers, practice and DSO leaders, healthcare executives, technologists, and others with an interest in AI in oral healthcare.

Do I need to be an AAAI-D member to attend?

No. The meeting is open to both AAAI-D members and non-members.

Will the meeting be in person or virtual?

The meeting will be held in person at UCLA Covel Commons in Los Angeles. Consult the Annual Meeting registration page for any updates to the meeting format.

Where can I find hotel information?

AAAI-D has prepared a separate Travel & Hotel Information Guide with hotel and accommodation options. Contact AM27-LA@aaai-d.org for the guide and any current room-block information.

Who can I contact with general questions?

Please contact AM27-LA@aaai-d.org.

Venue location only. Organized by AAAI-D; not sponsored by or affiliated with UCLA.

Program and Continuing Education

Participant FAQ | Updated October 30, 2026

What topics will be covered?

The program addresses current and emerging topics in AI in dentistry, including diagnostics, clinical implementation, workflow, education, research, and more.

Who are the speakers?

Invited speakers are listed in the preliminary program. Speakers, titles, and times may change as the program is finalized. Research presentation arrangements are being finalized.

How many CE hours are anticipated?

AAAI-D's ADA CERP provider recognition is effective November 1, 2026, through December 31, 2028. Final CE hours and participation requirements will be announced with the scientific program.

Will the meeting be recorded or available on demand?

The meeting will not be recorded or available on demand.

Will there be opportunities for research presentations?

Research presentation arrangements are being finalized. For current abstract submission information and deadlines, contact abstracts@aaai-d.org.

Will there be an exhibit hall?

Yes. Exhibits will showcase technologies and solutions relevant to AI in dentistry. For exhibit and sponsorship opportunities, contact AM27-LA@aaai-d.org.

Will networking opportunities be available?

Yes. The meeting includes dedicated time for networking with colleagues, speakers, and industry partners. Details will be announced as the program is finalized.

Venue location only. Organized by AAAI-D; not sponsored by or affiliated with UCLA.

Registration and Value

Participant FAQ | Updated October 30, 2026

Where can I find registration rates and deadlines?

Registration categories, current Early Bird and Regular rates, and deadlines are posted on the Annual Meeting registration page.

Are reduced registration rates available?

Yes. Reduced rates are available for students, residents, and allied health professionals. Please visit the Annual Meeting registration page for current rates and details.

What does registration include?

Registration includes access to all scientific sessions, exhibits, scheduled networking opportunities, and meeting materials.

Can I transfer my registration to someone else?

Registration substitutions are permitted at any time under the published event registration terms. Email info@aaai-d.org with the registrant's name and payment transaction ID.

What is the cancellation policy?

Meeting-related refunds are governed by the meeting registration rules:
Before May 10, 2027: full refund less a $25 administrative fee.
May 10 through June 9, 2027: 50% refund.
After June 9, 2027: no refund.
Eligible refunds will not be processed until 60 days after the meeting.
Email cancellation requests to info@aaai-d.org with your name and payment transaction ID. See the Annual Meeting registration page for the meeting terms.

What forms of payment are accepted?

A major credit card is required for online registration. See the Annual Meeting registration page for payment details.

I am having trouble with registration. Who can help?

Please contact AM27-LA@aaai-d.org.

Venue location only. Organized by AAAI-D; not sponsored by or affiliated with UCLA.

Program and Additional Information

Participant FAQ | Updated October 30, 2026

When will the final program be available?

The preliminary program is available now. The final schedule, speakers, and session details will be posted on the Annual Meeting website as they become available.

Will meals be provided?

Meal and refreshment information will be provided with the final Annual Meeting program.

Will continuing education credits be offered?

Yes. Continuing education credit will be available for the meeting program. Final credit information and participation requirements will be announced with the scientific program.

Will there be an exhibit hall?

Yes. The meeting will include exhibits featuring technology developers, industry partners, academic institutions, and professional organizations. Exhibit details will be posted on the website.

Will there be networking opportunities?

Yes. The meeting will include dedicated opportunities to connect with colleagues, speakers, exhibitors, and the broader dental AI community.

Are there opportunities to get involved?

For current research presentation and abstract submission information, contact abstracts@aaai-d.org. For speaking, sponsorship, and exhibiting inquiries, contact AM27-LA@aaai-d.org.

Where can I find the latest updates?

Visit the Annual Meeting registration page and preliminary program for the latest published meeting information. You can also follow AAAI-D's official communications channels.

Who can I contact with additional questions?

Please contact the meeting team at AM27-LA@aaai-d.org.

Venue location only. Organized by AAAI-D; not sponsored by or affiliated with UCLA.

General Information

Participant FAQ | Updated October 30, 2026

Who should attend?

The meeting is designed for dental and allied health professionals, students, residents, educators, researchers, healthcare and DSO leaders, technology developers, industry professionals, and others interested in AI in dentistry.

What is the meeting's primary focus?

Evidence, clinical application, implementation, education, research, and the broader impact of AI on dentistry and oral health.

What is the overall theme?

From Innovation to Implementation: Advancing the Clinical, Scientific, and Economic Case for AI in Dentistry.

Is this a virtual or in-person meeting?

The meeting will be held in person in Los Angeles, California.

What language will the meeting be conducted in?

The meeting will be conducted in English.

What if I require accessibility accommodations?

Please contact AM27-LA@aaai-d.org to discuss your specific accessibility needs and venue arrangements.

Is there a code of conduct?

All attendees, speakers, and exhibitors are expected to follow the AAAI-D Code of Conduct. Contact AM27-LA@aaai-d.org for the applicable meeting guidance.

I work in industry or technology. Is this meeting for me?

Yes. Industry participants can gain insight into clinical needs, evidence expectations, implementation challenges, and responsible adoption while connecting with the dental AI community. Commercial promotion remains separate from the independent educational program.

Who can I contact with additional questions?

Please contact AM27-LA@aaai-d.org.

Venue location only. Organized by AAAI-D; not sponsored by or affiliated with UCLA.

